

Cold Stores

We have extensive cold stores with the capacity to hold around five million plants.

Freshly lifted stock is kept in a humidified store to maintain moist roots.

Graded stock is packed ready for longer term storage at controlled temperatures down to minus 2 degrees C. So the plants are kept dormant and in perfect condition to extend the planting season into late Spring.

